This text is from the middle of a short story.

How has the writer structured the text to interest you as a reader?

You could write about:

- what the writer focuses your attention on at the beginning
- how and why the writer changes this focus as the Source develops
- any other structural features that interest you.

[8 marks]

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Focus this part of your answer on the second part of the Source from line 16 to the end.

A reviewer wrote: 'This end part of the extract where the boy's game comes to life takes a darker and more chilling tone.'

To what extent do you agree?

In your response, you could:

- consider your own impressions of the boy's game
- evaluate how the writer creates a dark and chilling tone
- support your response with references to the text.
